Elimination Play on Western Amateur Championship Starts at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., June 14.—Elimination rounds in the western amateur golf championship opened today at the Sunset Hill Country club with 170 competitors.

The course is in excellent shape and ideal weather conditions prevail. Contrary to expectations, Francis Olinette, present champion, was not on the greens to defend his title.

The far west sent E. R. Tufts, as chief of Los Angeles Galaxy, and the south, Sunday Whitney, of New Orleans, winner of the trans-Mississippi tourney last week.

Among those expected to become finalists are Harry G. Lage, of Minneapolis, five times winner of the trans-Mississippi title; Nelson Whitney, Sam Reynolds, of Omaha, and Clarence Wolff, who, with a 17 shot, is lowest amateur golfer in the St. Louis golf association, winners of the Olympic cup yesterday.

Philly Infielder Badly Injured

The injury to Dave Bancroft, the Phillies' splendid shortstop, who sprained his left ankle sliding into second base in the third inning of a recent game, was most unfortunate for Bancroft is one of the bulwarks of the club.

The accident recalls the fact that Bancroft was hurt in 1914 when the Phillies were crowding the Robins for first place toward the close of the pennant race, and the loss of Bancroft from the lineup a critical state of the struggle.

It is a logical contention, as Bancroft undoubtedly was the player whose addition to the Phillies in the spring of 1915 made of them a championship ball club.
